

|                                    |                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                 |
|------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| STATEGeorgia               | COUNTYRichmond                                                 | TOWN OR VICINITY540Augusta-Telfair St.                                                                                                  |
| INDEX NUMBERGA 123-Aug 14- | MONUMENT✓ Old Academy of Richmond County= NOW LIBRARY + MUSEUM |                                                                                                                                                 |
| REPRESENTED INNEGATIVE FILE    | ✓                                                                      | H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO.GA-229                                                                                                                   |
| PUBLISHEDPHOTOGRAPHS           | ✓                                                                      | History- Built 1802. Wm. HenryGoodrich, Archt., remodeled building 1856-57. Occupied by Young Men's Library Association and Augusta Museum. |
| PUBLISHEDDRAWINGS              |                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                 |
| TERBS COLL.                        |                                                                        | Description- Two story, masonry stuccoed.Battlemented top.                                                                                  |
|                                    |                                                                        | References- Minutes of Meeting of Trusteesof the Academy of RichmondCounty.                                                             |

MAXWELL, Handbook of Augustas, 1878, p. 64 wood engr.

Harold Bush-Brown

Susie W. Thomas, Co-author

June 30, 1936

% Ga. Tech.

Atlanta, Ga.